

I am writing to urge the FCC to assess the interference impact of Power Line Communications (FCC: "BPL") on other services including Amateur Radio. As Amateur Radio is limited in power, the immense interference potential of BPL to this service would be devastating to its public service, training and experimentation capabilities. Please do not approve BPL until a technology for preventing interference to other bands is developed.